

Dear Friends,

This month begins with the days leading to Pentecost which is the last week of the Easter season. It then moves past Trinity Sunday and into the throws of what we call Common Time. For the entire Summer and a good bit of Fall, we are in Common Time, when the theme of our readings is not really coherent or thematic as they would be during Lent or Advent, for example. The theme of Common time is discipleship, so this is the time of year that we expect to read the stories of Jesus' teaching, his parables, miracles, and such. This is not a particularly exciting time in the church year. There are no major festival days like there are at other times. This is the meat-and-potatoes of the Christian year. What does it look like to live and love the way Jesus taught us in our every day life? These are the stories that help us answer that. Enjoy!
