

DAILY BIBLE READING

Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. 17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted. 18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

November's readings point us toward the end of the Church year and the last Holy Day "The Reign of Christ, the King". We see the readings from Deuteronomy setting up the relationship between God and the covenant people, and that covenant is fulfilled in Pauls' eyes by Christ, as evidenced in the Readings from his letters to the Romans. Hebrews as well speaks of Christ as the great high priest who intercedes for us to God the Almighty. As the priests of Israel entered the Holy of Holies to offer a pure and perfect sacrifice to God, so too, Christ, the great high priest offered himself as a sacrifice of love and grace for all Humankind. All of this is to lead to one thing: The end of the story. What's the end? As we began with a hopeful people waiting for the coming of the Anointed One in Bethlehem so long ago, now we wait again for the coming of the King of Glory who will usher in the Kingdom of God and bring all things to a full and perfect end. Christ will reign at God's right hand forever and be surrounded by the Saints of all times and all places. Enjoy the month!
